Provest at work in Tweed small business

"Families make sacrifices to run their own companies..."

Tweed Nationals MP Geoff Provest is lending a hand with local small business firms as he participates in Pollies for Small Business 2007.

"I am conscious of the sacrifices families make to run their own companies, without all the job security and paid holidays that employees enjoy," Mr Provest said.

"This creates more jobs for local people than big business or government."

The Nationals MP is working at:

- The Donut Shop, Tweed City, from 9.30-11.00am;
- The Good Guys, Tweed Heads South, from 11.30am to 1.00pm; and
- The Pottsville Tavern, from 5.00 to 6.30pm
